It won't be long before Prince Lorian turns into Blackthorn.

We will retrieve
the dragon artifact
as planned.

...Why do you
assume that Lexion
has failed to meet the contract requirements
already?

Because Dragons
do not understand the concept of emotions

They are all cut off in their consciousness

They work only
with a strong will and determination...

A human who
can be attracted by
a mere woman...

correct possibly
with the correct
requirements of a
natural artifact

Down at!

The two of them were bound to die, anyway.

Now I have the opportunity to get rid of two birds with one stone.

If he had wanted
ignominy of the thing
under the kingdom,
he could've lived.

How unfortunate for
you, Prince Eilhart.

London!

Blackthorn has already spread throughout his body...

A human who
can be distracted by
a mere woman...

cannot possibly fulfill the central requirements of a
named artifact.

...You are a fool.

*You're monstrous! Heedless!
You're bent on fire for the throne? Even if you're weak, you hold a fraction of your own!*

*If you try to let
them's nothing stopping you from getting what you want!*

*Just for a single
woman with no
power called the queen, you...!*

*What's so damn
important about women?!*

Please say something back...

to your younger brother...

Big
brother

Count Strava explained everything in so much detail because...

He's planning on getting rid of me soon, as well.

If I'm going to die... stop, anyway...

No, I won't give up here!!

It's not dead yet, because a count down is on, now

They say you do to be killed

I will kill that rabbit you are, be killed!!!

I am not a disposable item.

I will not forgive you.

50th Kingdom Year 100 Month 100 Day
110th anniversary of 1000 Book Passage

Important: this with the reader understand to support future Josephine and the fourth prince Edith of A manding a trade with the M28 underground

With neither held much value as hostages, Ygg was released in for of a named artifact called the Large Dragon Artifact.

During its arrival, Queen Estira Josephine was flustered. The second prince of the kingdom, led against orders and tried to force government, resulting in mind corruption.

Through the second class dragon knights were killed, and the second prince was

The prince who captured seven Inugg, including Ygg, after which he was sold to the Richards

The main problem is with the Dragon Artifact, which disappeared along with Prince Rehart, from the scene

Extremely important information regarding the Dragon Artifact, they found a "wanted" notice for Prince Rehart.

More mothers...

The fate lady...

Kallana...

I stole her from after whom I was just under your age

Her radiant smile glowed so brightly under the blue stars

Who's
there?!

I lived for her.

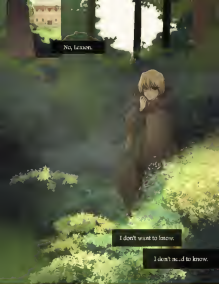

I wonder when
you'll find your own

I became contracted to the house of Denmark

and hid in the back alley
of the kingdom for three years, while constantly being on the move.

When I gained enough confidence in my abilities
to control the dragon artifact,
I returned to the kingdom.

Since I became a contractor, it was hard to get rid of me
using normal means.

Most of them didn't reject me right away.

As always, the king
paid me no mind.

And the new queen was pregnant
at the time.

No one was concerned about
the large health,
as usual.

and my position did not change at all.

Don Yelton, died in a tragic accident.

The seven-month program space was headed toward that summer vacation together for people, when it met with an unfortunate accident.

The new space will consist of ...

The wall is as tight as a drum, as long as the king is seated.

When the prince reaches the age of 22 - 24 the kingdom sends him to Norton, where the surveillance around him is weakened.

I will grasp that opportunity...

to change the kingdom from the inside out.

Until then, I need to build up my strength.

I need a much stronger power...

The flame veils are dancing.

A pair of blue eyes met with my own

That meddling woman annoys me to no end.

She does not realize the extent of her own power,

constantly using it
for idiotic reasons.

When I listen to Derek's
reports, my blood boils.

If I had that power,

I would never have used it like that.

The kingdom underground . If I didn't have to avoid
the king's prying eyes,

I wouldn't have used her powers as my own...

The time will soon be ripe

I've already severed the king's right hand.

I will block his ears and make him unable to think.

I will drag you down to the deepest pits of hell.

•

I will chop your head off in the deepest, darkest place I can find.

This endless cycle will end only with his death.

So I have (10-12) 10-12

She will be of great help in obtaining what I desire.

The flame veils are soaring.

I am still descending, on and on.

and I realize the truth, all too well.
